...What's New

June 27, 2019

Mr. Philip Rodriguez
2615 Main Street
Barnstable, MA 02630

Dear Mr. Rodriguez:

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that you have been selected as the AFSCME recipient of the Massachusetts Maritime Academy Employee of the Year. As part of your recognition, you will receive $500 and a personal parking space for the term of one year.

You were nominated by your co-workers, recommended by the Academy's selection committee and, then, designated by me as someone whose contribution to Massachusetts Maritime Academy is truly outstanding.

Since being hired by the Academy, you have distinguished yourself as an indispensable member of the maritime community. Your meticulous efforts to ensure technology is in-place, functional and fool-proof is recognized and appreciated by every individual that has required your expertise. From the classroom, to ceremonies, to meetings and celebrations, you can be depended upon to get the job done. Further, you conduct business with a smile, you never get rattled and are always pleasant despite obstacles that attempt to derail your efforts.

In the words of your nominators, you were recommended for your "dedication to excellence" and for being "an employee of the highest quality" and as someone who is "always willing to help and often in the spur of the moment."

Philip, your dedication to the faculty, staff and students has not gone unnoticed.

I personally congratulate you for a job well done and extend my best wishes to you in your continuing work on behalf of the Massachusetts Maritime Academy.

Congratulations and thank you,

Admiral Francis X. McDonald
President, MMA

Please come to a meeting to find out how you can become a union member.

Some facts about AFSCME Local 1067 and Council 93:

- AFSCME represents more than 1.6 million members nationwide, with more than 35,000 members of AFSCME Council 93 in Massachusetts. There are over 3,000 members of AFSCME Local 1067 at the Massachusetts state universities and colleges.
- Widely recognized as a powerful and effective voice for workers at the negotiating table, AFSCME consistently secures the best wages and health insurance coverage for our members.
- We have over 500 members who are on the 03 payroll at UMass Amherst and they have a contract with benefits.

TO: State and Community College Personnel Directors
FROM: Carleton H. LaPorte, Jr.
Vice Chancellor/Director of Employee Relations
RE: AFSCME, 1067 - Coalition One Agreement
DATE: August 30, 1985

The Employee Relations Division of the Board of Regents has received several complaints relative to the use of "Form 30's". Please be advised that it is the position of this office that "Form 30's" are to be used as an "information gathering" tool and should not be used to replace existing job specifications either in postings or advertisements.

In the 1983-1986 Collective Bargaining Agreement, we have agreed with AFSCME that the "classification structure and the accompanying job specifications have been created by the Commonwealth through its Department of Personnel Administration for the purposes of describing the duties and responsibilities of each job title." (Article 23, Section 1.C.).

However, as you are aware, these job specifications are descriptive rather than restrictive and employees may be assigned incidental, related or emergency duties.

If you have any questions in this regard please contact me.

Weingarten Rights!

Weingarten Rights. Know them, Use them! (SAVE THIS INFORMATION)

If you are unsure if they apply, ask for them anyway. Better to be safe than sorry.

Know your rights! Please read below!

Employee Rights in “Weingarten” Meetings – Know Them, Use Them!

Beware that management is not obligated to inform employees of their Weingarten rights – employees must ask for them.

Unlike Miranda rights –where police are required to tell a suspect of his/her right to an attorney, etc. – employees must ask for their Weingarten rights.

Weingarten – State the following:

“If the discussion in this meeting could in any way lead to my being disciplined or terminated or impact on my personal working conditions, I request that my steward, local officer or union representative be present.

Without union representation, I choose not to answer any further questions at this time.

This is my right under a Supreme Court decision called Weingarten”.

Weingarten rights apply during investigatory interviews when a supervisor questions an employee to obtain information that could be used as grounds for discipline for either you or a colleague. When an employee believes such a meeting may lead to discipline, he/she has the right to request union representation.

These basic Weingarten rights stem from a Supreme Court’s decision.

- The employee must request representation before or during the meeting.
- After an employee makes the request, the supervisor has these choices:
 - grant the request and wait for the union representative’s arrival;
 - deny the request and end the meeting immediately; or
- give the employee the choice of either ending the meeting or continuing without representation.

(Never, ever, ever, continue without representation! EVER!)

If the supervisor denies the request and continues to ask questions, the employee has a right to refuse to answer!

In addition, the supervisor is committing an unfair labor practice.

As always, call your Chief Steward if you have questions or if you are unsure!

Please note: Do NOT think that you are bothering your steward if you have a question or a problem with your supervisor and/or management. That is what we are here for.

Janus v. AFSCME

The United States Supreme Court has ruled in a case that could affect your union-negotiated job security, pay and benefits. The case is Janus v. AFSCME Council 31, and you need to know the facts:

- Anti-worker billionaires brought the case. The same 1-percenters who have been rigging the system against working people poured millions more into buying a ruling that could hurt you, your co-workers and working families.
- They want to bust unions. They know that unions like ours must represent every worker equally, even if some choose not to join as members. They convinced the Court to say that workers who receive all the benefits of a union contract and union representation no longer have to chip in to cover their fair share of the costs in an attempt to hurt the strength of our union.
- They want to sap our power. They know the power of a union comes from our strength in numbers. Corporate bigwigs have the power of money, but we have the power of people. That's why they plan to spend tens of millions to convince people like you to quit your union.
- They want to divide us. The more people who stick together in our union, the more power we have to negotiate good pay, benefits and job security. If people quit, that power goes away.

You can defend yourself! You can do one simple thing, right now, to prevent their attacks from hurting the job security and union-negotiated benefits you deserve and count on.

Let us know you'll never quit your union by signing the pledge today.

<https://www.afscme.org/hub/afscme-we-never-quit?source=janusvafscme.org>

Public service workers never quit on our communities, and we never quit on each other.

No court case can change that.

Don't be a Janus!
